

NMBI Summer Series

A conversation about nursing and midwifery by nurses and midwives

Nursing Leadership in the Midlands: Evolution of Practice - Undergraduates and Beyond

The Nursing and Midwifery Board of Ireland (NMBI) will be co-hosting a Summer Series event with Technological University of the Shannon: Midlands Midwest (TUS), Athlone Campus on Tuesday, 14 June 2022.

The panel event will discuss general nursing in the context of regional strategic workforce planning and career pathways for the country's general nurses. There will be a particular focus on nursing leadership in the Midlands as well as the future evolution of specialist nursing roles and of advanced nursing practice in the region. The role of the newly formed Technological University Shannon providing a sustainable workforce supply for the region will be discussed. This conversational event is an opportunity to hear from leading experts in this field of nursing and from NMBI representatives on future plans for education in nursing.

This is an in-person event only and is not being livestreamed.

You can register to attend on Eventbrite.

Date: Tuesday, 14 June 2022

Time: 17:00 to 19:00

Location: Lecture Theatre J1007, Nursing and Healthcare Building, TUS Athlone Campus, N37 HD68

The NMBI Summer Series is an opportunity for professionals in both academic and clinical fields of expertise to come together to discuss the future for nursing and midwifery, to probe innovations in practice and to examine new ideas.
