

100
YEARS
1919-2019

NURSING
Regulation
IN IRELAND

NURSING and MIDWIFERY BOARD OF IRELAND
Thursday 24th October, 2019
Pegasus Suite, Clayton Hotel, Liffey Valley, Dublin

100 YEARS OF NURSING REGULATION: PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

PROGRAMME

08.30 – 09.10	Registration and networking with light refreshments
09.10 – 09.15	Welcome and opening of conference
09.15 – 09.20	“Regulation and changing healthcare” Ms Sheila McClelland , Chief Executive Officer, NMBI
09.20 – 09.40	Dr Siobhan O’Halloran , Chief Nursing Officer, Department of Health
09.40 – 10.00	Ms Essene Cassidy , President of NMBI
10.00 – 10.10	Ms Shannon Yee , Playwright Introducing, “Reassembled, Slightly Askew: a brain injury survivor’s story” Shannon will host three sessions at 10.30/13.30/15.00 . Delegates can sign up to experience this immersive audio-based artwork.
10.10 – 10.40	Break for refreshments Breakout sessions taking place during break time Room Mira – “Reassembled, Slightly Askew: a brain injury survivor’s story” Ms Shannon Yee
10.45 – 11.35	“Nursing Regulation for the last 100 years” Prof. Gerard Fealy , Dean of Nursing and Head of School, UCD Dr Anne-Marie Ryan , Director of Operations, Registration, NMBI Prof. Yvonne McEwen , Professor of History, War and Conflict Studies, University of Wolverhampton
11.35 – 12.00	“Code of professional conduct and ethics for registered nurses and midwives” Ms Lorraine Clarke-Bishop and Dr Judith Foley
12.00 – 12.40	“International Nurse Regulator Collaborative (INRC) – Introduction and Overview” , Ms Christine Penney , Chief Officer, Regulatory Policy, British Columbia College of Nursing Professionals
12.40 – 14.10	Lunch

Bord Altranais agus
Cnámhseachais na hÉireann
Nursing and Midwifery
Board of Ireland

100 YEARS OF NURSING REGULATION: PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

13.30 – 14.00

Breakout Sessions Taking Place during lunch time

Room Tucana – “Fitness to practise”, Ms Ursula Byrne

Room Columba – “Developing a scheme for monitoring the maintenance of professional competence”, Prof. Mary Gobbi

Room Mira – “Reassembled, Slightly Askew: a brain injury survivor’s story”
Ms Shannon Yee

14.10 – 14.15

Welcome back to main conference room

14.15 – 14.45

“The graduate voice”, Ms Emma McGorman in discussion with Dr Louise Kavanagh McBride

14.45 – 15.15

“The importance of regulation”, Mr Kevin O’Sullivan, Director of Solopep Ltd.

Kevin is a Research Fellow at the University of Limerick and passionate about medical device design and patient safety. He is the founding director of Solopep which assists those with respiratory disease. He talks to Eamonn about the importance of regulation and his constant desire for innovation.

15.00 – 15.30

Breakout Session Taking Place simultaneously

Room Mira – “Reassembled, Slightly Askew: a brain injury survivor’s story”
Ms Shannon Yee

15.15 – 16.00

“The future of regulation”, Panel discussion chaired by Mr Paul Cullen, Health Correspondent, Irish Times.

Panelists:

Dental Council of Ireland – Mr David O’Flynn, Registrar

CORU – Ms Ginny Hanrahan, CEO

NMBI – Ms Sheila McClelland, CEO

HIQA – Mr Phelim Quinn, CEO

16.00 – 16.15

Closing remarks

